

Tuesday - Leading Innovation Track

Last Updated: 3/23/2012

Leading Innovation

The Leading Innovation in information management track provides a forum for discussion on new and emerging technologies that are being integrated into the federal environment. Many of these technologies have been highlighted by administration priorities;

1:30-2:20 p.m.	Better Business with Cloud Computing Justin Benoit, Director - Infrastructure & Unclassified Cyber Security, Mission Support Alliance	Trinity Ballroom 3
2:25-3:15 p.m.	ICAM and the challenges it aims to address Frank Husson, Director, Office of the Chief Information Officer Glen Lee, Office of the Chief Information Officer	Trinity Ballroom 3
3:45-4:35 p.m.	IPv6 Best Practices Denise Hill, Senior Technical Advisor, Department of Energy Michael Sinatra, Engineer, Office of Science Seth Hall, Network Engineer, Bro Mark Fields, Project Lead, Department of Energy Laura Hobgood, Project Manager, Department of Energy	Trinity Ballroom 3
4:40-5:30 p.m.	Desktop Virtualization Carol Fineagan, CIO, EnergySolutions	Trinity Ballroom 3

Wednesday - Leading Innovation Track

Last Updated: 3/23/2012

Leading Innovation

The Leading Innovation in information management track provides a forum for discussion on new and emerging technologies that are being integrated into the federal environment. Many of these technologies have been highlighted by administration priorities;

1:30-2:20 p.m.	DOE IT Sustainability and Data Center Optimization - An Integrated Approach Jake Wooley, Program Manager, U.S. Department of Energy Emily Stoddart, Program Analyst, SPO, U.S. Department of Energy	Trinity Ballroom 3
2:25-3:15 p.m.	Optimize and Innovation of the DOE Wireless Program Laura Hobgood, Project Manager, IM-40 IT Corporate Project Management Office/Energy Enterprise Solutions, LLC David Peters, Program Director, General Services Administration	Trinity Ballroom 3
3:45-4:35 p.m.	OpenEI - Using Linked Open Data to Share and Access Energy Data and Information Debbie Brodt-Giles, Digital Assets and OpenEI Manager, National Renewable Energy Laboratory	Trinity Ballroom 3
4:40-5:30 p.m.	Credentialing 2.0 Bryan Gorman, Senior Research Associate and Team Leader, Oak Ridge National Laboratory	Trinity Ballroom 3

Thursday - Leading Innovation Track

Last Updated: 3/23/2012

Leading Innovation

The Leading Innovation in information management track provides a forum for discussion on new and emerging technologies that are being integrated into the federal environment. Many of these technologies have been highlighted by administration priorities;

8:00-8:50 a.m.	Mobile Device Security Checklist Lee Neely, Senior Cyber Security Analyst, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory	Trinity Ballroom 3
8:55-9:45 a.m.	Oracle Business Intelligence - Breakthrough Analytic Capabilities Peter Fisher, Master Principal Architect, Oracle Federal Organization, Oracle Corporation	Trinity Ballroom 3
10:05-10:55 a.m.	GOanywhere - Real World Virtual Desktops in the DOE Tim Tuller, Program Manager, Energy Enterprise Solutions, LLC.	Trinity Ballroom 3
11:00-11:55 a.m.	Innovation at Enterprise.srs Andy Baker, Manager Innovation Technologies, Savannah River Nuclear Solutions	Trinity Ballroom 3
1:30-2:20 p.m.	Shibboleth and Federated Identity Overview and Demonstration John Volmer, Manager Security Services, Argonne National Laboratory Doug Engert, Argonne National Laboratory Greg Haverkamp, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory Mike Helm, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory	Trinity Ballroom 3
2:25-3:15 p.m.	Storm Clouds: Addressing Security and Deployment Issues in Cloud Computing Environments Vince Urias, Technical Staff, Sandia National Laboratories Trish Cagliostro, Product Manager, InfoReliance Corporation	Trinity Ballroom 3
3:45-4:35 p.m.	Transitioning Hanford to Enterprise VoIP Todd Eckman, Vice President- Information Management, Mission Support Alliance	Trinity Ballroom 3
4:40-5:30 p.m.	Transitioning the DOE PKI to the Shared Service Provider Cloud Michele Thomas, Information Technology Specialist, PKI Program Manager, OCIO, U.S. Department of Energy Glen Lee, Contractor to the OCIO	Trinity Ballroom 3

Friday - Leading Innovation Track

Last Updated: 3/23/2012

Leading Innovation

The Leading Innovation in information management track provides a forum for discussion on new and emerging technologies that are being integrated into the federal environment. Many of these technologies have been highlighted by administration priorities;

8:00-8:55 a.m.	Integrating Federal Clouds Jim Anthony, Vice President, Sales Engineering, Terremark, a Verizon Company	Trinity Ballroom 3
8:55-9:45 a.m.	Leveraging Cloud Computing to Enable the SmartGrid Branko Primetica, Vice President, eGlobalTech	Trinity Ballroom 3
10:05-10:55 a.m.	Leading Innovation with Cloud Computing Peter Coffee, Senior Vice President, Head of Platform Research, Salesforce.com	Trinity Ballroom 3
11:00-11:50 a.m.	Addressing Mobile Security and Compliance Requirements through a Mobile Risk Management Strategy Tyler Lessard, CMO, Fixmo	Trinity Ballroom 3